PRESENTATION THEME

LEADERSHIP

*“You have to SCORE to win.
The Leader's Advantage”*

Why are so many leaders failing and falling? Where have all the great leaders gone? What were the secrets that magnificent leaders of the past knew? These are questions Jeremy Kingsley will help you answer through this powerful presentation by using the acronym SCORE – Sacrifice, Character, Opportunity, Respect, Excellence. Through compelling historical stories and inspiring truth, you will be challenged to view your position and your life with a new perspective. This presentation will not only make a difference in your life but also in the lives of all those you have the privilege to touch.

PRESENTATION THEME

INSPIRATION AND MOTIVATION

“Inspired People Produce Results”

Inspired People Produce Results is a fast-paced collection of “how to” success principles for business and community leaders based on a single, vital premise: your success as a leader hinges on your ability to inspire. You will be energized and empowered. Jeremy highlights essential principles such as patience, loyalty, personal attention, integrity, and offers specific advice on how to inspire a team of employees from any generation.

“Passion and Purpose”

Passion - Passion drives us. Passion is important because it intensifies focus, enables innovation and creativity, motivates us to pursue excellence, energizes colleagues, helps us deal with fear, and keeps us contributing even when we're not at our best.

Purpose - Your ability to establish a clear purpose for yourself and others each day will make the difference between colleagues who are hanging on until the weekend and employees who can't wait for Monday morning. If you can discover and communicate the greater meaning behind the work of your team, you'll be on the path to enhanced production.

PRESENTATION THEME

TEAM BUILDING AND COMMUNICATION

“If You Don't, It Won't!”

Most people don't leave their job because of the work; they leave because of how they are treated by their bosses and co-workers. Too many lives are being wasted. Too many companies are not reaching maximum potential. Through unforgettable stories and time-tested values, Jeremy Kingsley calls us to find the true meaning and benefits of serving each other. Replacing sarcasm with encouragement, replacing gossip with support, replacing grudges with forgiveness. You will be inspired and challenged to live with compassion, understanding, and to treat people in a way that will change you and the people around you. It all starts with you, and remember if you don't - it won't.

Biography

Inspirational speaker and author Jeremy Kingsley is one of the most sought after speakers in the country. Since 1995 he has spoken to over 500,000 people at live events around the world. He has given over 2000 keynote speeches and his messages have reached millions through radio, television, and the internet. He is a master storyteller and connects with audiences through the perfect blend of humor, inspiration, and relevant principles to help each individual. He believes that inspired people produce results and that people can change, grow, and fulfill their personal and professional dreams.

His early years were spent in the frigid winters of Wisconsin and his teen years in the politically charged environment of Washington, DC. In both places Jeremy learned a lot about character, integrity, and passion. After playing three years on the varsity basketball team in high school, he scored over 1000 points and was named Conference Most Valuable Player his senior year. Jeremy has the heart of an athlete and understands the importance of commitment, determination, and purpose. He then went on to college and graduate school; Jeremy holds bachelors and masters degrees from Columbia International University.

Jeremy and his wife Dawn, live in Columbia, South Carolina with their sons, Jaden and Dylan.
